

Which certification is right for me?

CERTIFICATION	DESCRIPTION	EXAM COST	RENEWAL PROCESS	PREPARATION PROGRAMS & RESOURCES
Certified Health Care Facility Manager 	Best for health care facility directors, managers, engineers and maintenance personnel who aspire to manage health care facilities.	$425  (ASHE members get discounted rate of $275)	Valid for three years; renewal requires continuing education or taking the exam again.	Education program: CHFM Exam Review Course Online education: CHFM Exam Review e-Learning Course CHFM Self-Assessment Examination CHFM Candidate Handbook and Application MORE ASHE CHFM preparation resources
Certified Health Care Constructor 	Best for general contractors, supervisors, and project leaders who lead health care construction projects and want to show a commitment to the field of health care facility construction. ASHE recommends that each general contractor/project lead hold a Certified Healthcare Construction (CHC) certification, and that at least one CHC should be part of every health care construction project.	$570  (ASHE members get discounted price of $400)	Valid for three years; renewal requires continuing education or taking the exam again.	Education program: Health Care Construction Workshop (content deep dive) Education program: CHC Exam Review Course CHC Self-Assessment Examination CHC Candidate Handbook and Application MORE ASHE CHC preparation resources
Certified Health Care Physical Environment Worker 	Best for subcontractors, specialty contractors and engineering staff. Covers foundational information for those working in health care environments. ASHE recommends that everyone else on a job site should be a Certified Health Care Physical Environment Worker.	$50  (ASHE members get discounted rate of $40)	Valid for three years. To become recertified after the 3 year period, take the exam again. No continuing education requirements.	Book: Working in Health Care: A Guide for Facility Business Partners, Construction Professionals, and Subcontractors Education program: Working in Health Care: Certified Health Care Physical Environment Worker Education &amp; Exam Review Online education: Safe Day One, offered by the Kentucky Society of Healthcare Engineers, an ASHE preferred education provider Video: Today You Are Healthcare, an online training video for construction workers.