What is the Vista Award program?

Every year, the Vista Awards aim to highlight professionals who are at the forefront of health care design and construction innovation. The American Society for Health Care Engineering (ASHE) of the American Hospital Association (AHA) firmly believes in recognizing teams who work together to develop and maintain safe, quality health care environments; demonstrate effective and efficient communication; and rely on data-based decision-making processes.

The Vista Awards are given in three different categories:

New Construction

This award is presented to a team that has constructed a new facility essentially from the ground up. The new facility may be connected to an existing facility, but must have its own identity and be a new space.

Renovation

This award is presented to a team that has altered existing conditions or added new space to existing structures. The original building envelope must remain essentially intact.

Infrastructure

This award is presented to a team that has modified or replaced major portions of a facility's utility generation, distribution, or control systems. This type of project involves significant project planning.

Why Vista? Award benefits include:

- One complimentary registration to attend the 2024 International Summit & Exhibition on Health Facility Planning Design and Construction (PDC Summit)
- A special overall team project award to be presented at the 2024 PDC Summit
- Complimentary exposure in the Architecture for Health Showcase
- Feature in ASHE's Health Facilities Management Magazine and hfm magazine.com

It's time for your team to be recognized for their hard work. Visit ashe.org/awards/vista and submit your application today!
